The Next Right Step

 UNIVERSITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge God, and He will make straight your paths. PROVERBS 3:5-6

Beloved,

We are still in a space between what was and what will be. Reopening our buildings and regathering the congregation physically will not resolve our disorientation we may feel at this time. We are still stuck between something that has ended and a new thing that is not yet ready to begin.

During this time of year, we would usually try to set audacious goals, cast bold new visions, and wrestle our way towards a new beginning. That approach may provide a false sense of control and momentum, but it avoids the discernment work that these threshold moments require. Instead of planning our way through it, we must learn our way through it. That's why we are taking your lead and focusing our curiosity in five major areas of ministry next year to take the "next right step."

I encourage you to join us in navigating the future together. Our commitment Sunday will be during both our 8:30 AM and 11 AM worship services on October 24th. I look forward to seeing you there!

With Great Hope,

Rev. Katie McKay Simpson

To discover our next steps, we will create teams around five "learning agendas" which were identified by our congregation in a survey in May of 2021. Through the work of these teams, we will create plans to support the growth and deepening of our faith community.

Over the next twelve months, from the learnings of these teams, we will form our Vision for Ministry for the years to come to refresh and revive our approach to reaching the world around us in the name of Jesus Christ.
