We hope you will land in a place that will strengthen your relationship with Jesus Christ. We look forward to connecting and growing with you at the University United Methodist Church.

The mission of UUMC is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by offering a meaningful and relevant Christian witness that welcomes all, nurtures growth, and serves our community.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASSES

9:45 - 10:45 A.M.

CARPENTER'S CLASS

Our class is composed mostly of young professionals – some with children and some without. Due to the nature of our busy lives, no preparation or reading is required before class. We meet upstairs in room 215 of the Trice Building.

CONTEMPORARY CHRISTIAN CONCERNS CLASS

Our class, often called CCC, is composed primarily of older adults. Although younger adults are more than welcome. Each week a member of the class or an outside presenter speaks on a new contemporary Christian concern followed by a lively discussion. Some examples of the class topics might include an update on the Middle East, immigration issues, homelessness in Baton Rouge, or health issues like Alzheimer's. We meet in the parlor in the Holmes building right next to the Fellowship Hall.

FOUNDATIONS

We focus on short-cycle studies that range from topical subjects to discussions of Scripture. To accommodate busy schedules, our studies are designed for “picking up” at any week of the study, and require no “homework.” This class welcomes open conversation that uplifts our common journey in faith. We meet in the church library!

OPEN DOOR CLASS

Our class studies different modern perspectives on living a Christian life in our modern world. We view videos presented by experts on a subject and have lively discussions on how to apply them to our lives. No preparation is required for class, and each class can be attended as a standalone session. The class is composed of 50 to 70-year-olds, both single and married, retired and active in the workforce, and long-time and new church members. We meet in room 116 of the Trice building.

GENESIS CLASS

Led by Lauren LeBoeuf and Dr. John Fletcher, this new small group is composed of people who are 18-25 years old. You could be in college, you could be getting your master's degree or other professional degrees. The hope is that regardless of what stage of life you are in, you can feel welcomed and loved! This class requires no preparation! We meet upstairs in room 213 of the Trice Building! If you want to get involved, you can text "genesis small group" to 225 - 217 - 4403.

SMALL GROUPS

MONDAY MORNING BOOK GROUP

We meet each week at 7:00 a.m. on Zoom and focus mainly on books on theology. We also focus on secular works to provide variety and books from various tenses-- from C.S. Lewis to Marcus Borg. We are open to new members of any age. Contact Ed Dodd at edodd2@cox.net for details.

WEDNESDAY EVENING WOMEN SMALL GROUP

Our women's small group meets in UUMC's Parlor from 5:00 to 6:00 p.m. No preparation is required, but please bring a Bible. We spend half an hour reviewing the past week for ways in which we have served as the living hands of God in a hurting world. In the second half hour, we read one chapter of the Bible and discuss how we understand that chapter to illuminate our Christian lives. We end with prayer requests and a time of prayer. Contact Barbara Albright at jbalbright@cox.net for details.

THURSDAY MORNING WESLEY GROUP

The Thursday Morning Wesley Group meets each Thursday at 10:30 a.m. in the Parlor. We discuss clashes between culture and Christianity using the Wesleyan quadrilateral. Currently, members are in their 7th, 8th, and 9th decades, but all are welcome.
